- ♪ The fall semester runs from October 17 - December 13th
- ♪ Classes are held at Centenary United Methodist Church in Winston-Salem on Thursday afternoons, from 5:50 - 6:30.
- ♪ Performance opportunities are approximately 1-2 times per semester. Some of these include singing in a concert with the other 5 choirs!
- ♪ A schedule is sent out ahead of time so that parents can plan ahead.
- ♪ There is also an opportunity for parents to volunteer, such as helping to sit in and chaperone, or to provide refreshments when needed.

Centenary UMC:

- We use the entrance at the BACK of the church, which is next to the back of the Public Library downtown.
- You can park on the street (street signs apply), or in the small lot directly across from the back entrance. Enter the church inside the 4½ street entrance closest to the parking lot.
- Singer check-in will be just inside the Welcome Area. Due to lack of space and fire code parents are to leave and return for pick-up. The Public Library is literally next door and a great place to go/take siblings while you wait.*

The purpose of the Dragonflies Choir is to introduce young singers to choral music through vocal discovery, creative movement, & light performances.

Anne Saxon and Anna Wade will direct our Dragonfly Singers.
